

PRIVACY POLICY

MedicarePHD.com, Inc. (“MedicarePHD.com”), respects your right to privacy and wants to make your online experience as safe and enjoyable as possible. Any information collected from you is used to provide you with a specific service. Individual information is not gathered except on a voluntary basis. Depending on the service you are accessing, you may be asked to provide information including, but not limited to, your name, and e-mail address. If you provide your e-mail address, we may occasionally send you e-mail messages informing you about our services and/or notable Medicare events. We will not share, sell, trade or rent any personal information to third parties without your permission.

We use commercial encryption software techniques to protect the transmission and storage of the information you submit to us when you use one of our secure online forms. E-mail that you send to us is not necessarily secure against third-party interception or misdirection. For your own protection, you may wish to communicate sensitive information using a method other than e-mail.

In addition to obtaining certain personal information, MedicarePHD.com may gather tracking information including, but not limited to, your IP address, browser type, where on our website you view. This aggregate information is used to update and enhance our website. For website security purposes and to ensure that our website remains available to all users, MedicarePHD.com’s computer system(s) that support the website use industry standard methods to monitor and audit network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information or otherwise cause damage. Anyone visiting our website expressly consents to such monitoring and auditing.

We will not knowingly request personally identifiable information from children nor will we disclose any personally identifiable information regarding children to third parties. This position is consistent with the Federal Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act.

There may be links on our website(s) that permit you to leave our website(s) and travel to third party linked website(s). We do not control the links or these third-party website(s) and we are not responsible for the content of any linked site(s). The inclusion of any link does not imply our endorsement of that website. The privacy policy and/or terms of use of a linked website may be different from that of MedicarePHD.com’s website. MedicarePHD.com is not responsible for any use of your information by any linked sites.

While unlikely, we may be required by law enforcement or judicial authorities to provide personally identifiable information to the appropriate governmental authorities. If requested as part of a legal proceeding, we will provide this information upon receipt of that appropriate documentation.

Your use of this website constitutes your acceptance of our Privacy Policy.
